

UNIT - IV : Preparing a Research Project

- 4.1. : Defining a Problem
- 4.2. : Data sources and collection
- 4.3. : Field work
- 4.4. : Organizing the Writing

Module - 20 : Field-Report and Dissertation*(Full Marks 50)

Group A	Field Report Full Marks 25	Group B	Dissertation Full Marks 25
	Report and Group Presentation		Report and Seminar Presentation on Specific problem based on Special Paper

- Each Report to be restricted within 30 (Thirty) pages in A4 size paper with 1½ spacing inclusive of Maps, Diagrams and Photographs.etc.

REFERENCES*Module - 11 : India – Regional Problems and Resource Management

- Banerjee, S. P. (1996) – Environmental Appraisal of Mining Projects : A Review of Indian System, Oxford & IBH Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi
- Geddes, A. : Man & Land in South Asia.
- Ghurur, R. S. : Caste and Class in India.
- Govt. of India : The Gazetteer of India.
- Joshi, S. C. (Ed. / 1988) - Mining and Environment in India, HRG Publications, New Delhi.
- Kingsley, D. (1970) : Population of India, Pakistan.
- Kundu, and Moonis Raza (1986) : Indian Economy: The Regional Dimension.
- Mishra R. P. et. al (–) : Regional Development Planning in India - A strategy.
- Mitra A. (–) Levels of Regional Development of India, Census of India. Vol.II Part IA.
- Rao, M.S.A. : Urbanization and Social Change.
- Sdasyuk, G and P. Sengupta (–) : Economic Rationalization of India, Census of India Publication.
- Singh, K.S., Tribal Situation in India.